Peak Performance Group, Inc. Offers Global Enterprises the Key to a Winning Global Enterprise: Building Executive Team Success

Peak Performance Group's Building Executive Team Success Program Helps Executives Develop the Skills Needed to Grow their Organization and Develop their Team

GLOUCESTER, MA – July 14, 2010

Peak Performance Group, Inc. (PPG), a consulting firm that, since 1987, has specialized in providing complete global solutions to integrate and optimize their clients' leadership capability, organizational effectiveness and human potential announced today that a new service to assist executives in building executive team success draws on PPG's long track record of successfully designing uniquely for each client an integration of executive team teaming skills with a focused business activity such as strategic planning, operational problem solving, business analysis, or some other important activity for clients around the globe. Building Executive Team Success is a results-oriented program that integrates executive team development into real-life business management and leadership.

According to Dr. Richard Maybury, CEO and President of Peak Performance Group, Inc., (PPG) "A program that we customize and adapt to each executive team, for over 20 years clients have told us the experience has been a key to the success of executive team meetings intent on accomplishing a mission-critical task. Because the program designed is customized each occasion to integrate current business goals with the related executive team dynamics, clients often invite PPG to partner into key business engagements multiple times of the year."

Research into effective executive teams determined that key individual and collective team skills include: understanding and adapting to colleague personality, motivation and work styles; adapting communications to the style of their team members, analyzing and solving problems as a collective act, resolving conflict and, most importantly, a foundation of trustful, positive and constructive team dynamics. This program enables the executive team to adapt team learning skills that will enable to executive group to collaboratively and synergistically respond to unexpected situations, thereby ensuring the organization continues to move in the right direction and develop a competitive advantage.
