Peak Performance Group, Inc. Offers a Proven Way to Build Capability between Executive Team Members

Peak Performance Group's Executive Linkage for Success Service Helps Executives Resolve Challenging Conflict and to Solve Key Problems Critical to Personal and Enterprise Success

GLOUCESTER, MA – August 17, 2010

Peak Performance Group, Inc. (PPG), a consulting firm that, since 1987, has specialized in providing complete global solutions to integrate and optimize their clients' leadership capability, organizational effectiveness and human potential announced today that its new program, Executive Linkage for Success, is a targeted, results-oriented service that is focused on building capability between executives to resolve challenging conflict and to solve key problems critical to personal and enterprise success.

The growth and competitiveness of a business lives and dies on the ability of executives to tackle critical issues, drive constructive conflict and resolve key problems in the best interest of the enterprise. Good conflict is the lifeblood of sustained company success. Unresolved or badly managed conflict between executives robs a company of energy, synergy, creativity and morale. Unchecked, the trickle affect throughout the organization is damaging for everyone.

According to Dr. Richard Maybury, CEO and President of Peak Performance Group, Inc. (PPG), "Historically Peak Performance Group has provided this service as part of executive coaching assignments. Our clients' have been suggesting that we create a stand-alone, reasonably-priced service that is efficient and can be accomplished in one to three meetings. What a great idea! It certainly pays to listen to your customers. The response thus far as a stand along service has been tremendous."

The Executive Linkage for Success service is targeted at key executives entering into a volatile situation with another executive or currently locked in a cycle of unresolved conflict or problem solving needing a timely breakthrough.
